

The Hazards and Climate Resilience
Institute Presents:

FEMA Administrator

Deanne Criswell

A Face-to-Face Meeting at Boise State University

Join the HCRI this Tuesday, June 7th, to welcome the first female head of the Federal Emergency Management Agency to BSU! Bring your questions and learn about hazards, emergency management, and careers in FEMA. We hope to see you there!
